

140 Beam Wall Mounting Instruction

Important

Using appropriate fasteners to suit the mounting surface is the responsibility of the installer.
Units should be suspended at two points at all times to avoid the over-loading of fasteners.

 2000 Max. Span Within 0.5m Join or bend	 This edge up Note Wall Bracket orientation	 x 2 Minimum 2 Wall Brackets required
------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	--	--	--	--

10559-03-C